The following Bye-laws framed by the District Board of the Bangalore District, under Section 38 of the Local Boards and Village Panchayets Regulation, and sanctioned by Government in their Order No. 5678-9—L. B. 35-17-2, dated 8th November 1918, are published for information :—

2. These Bye-laws shall come into effect at once.

Revised Bye-laws framed by the District Board of the Bangalore District, for the control of tanneries.

1. No building or private place shall be permitted to be used as a tannery, except under a license to be taken out by the owner or occupier of such building or place from the District Board.

Note.—"Tannery in these Bye-laws means only a place used for tanning leather and does not include that where hides, horns and skins are stored or that used for the manufacture of leather goods".

2. Conducting a tannery without a license as described above, or in violation of the conditions of the license that may be granted shall entail on the owner and occupier of the tannery liability to the penalties prescribed by Section 38 of the Regulation.

3. Licenses shall be granted only, when the conditions hereinafter set forth exist.

4. Licenses shall be subject to suspension or revocation, when such conditions or any of them are not fulfilled or cease to exist.

5. The grant, suspension and revocation of licenses shall be within the powers of the District Board.

6. Appeals against the grant, suspension and revocation of licenses and also against any subsequent orders issued in the interests of sanitation and public safety shall lie from the District Board to the Government.

7. A license suspended or cancelled as before may be revived on the due fulfilment of the conditions prescribed.

8. The conditions precedent to the grant of a license are:—

(1) An application in writing should be presented to the President of the District Board. This application should furnish the particulars necessary to ascertain whether all the conditions precedent to the granting of a license are fulfilled. Such particulars should include a sketch of the proposed tannery.

(2) The following requirements are to be filled before a tannery is allowed to be started.

The building should be of an approved plan with special reference to the under-mentioned matters:—

(a) The flooring is to be water-tight and shall be of concrete or stone (Cuddapah slabs or well dressed burnt stones).

The inside of the walls to the height of 8 feet shall be plastered with cement to admit of scrubbing and washing to keep them clean.

(b) Light.—There must be an open yard in the centre and the roof provided with glass tiles here and there to admit of sufficient light.

(c) Ventilation.—A sufficient number of windows and doors shall be provided in proper places to admit of perflation of fresh air.

(d) Drainage.—All pits of whatever kind shall be connected with a system of water-tight drains and connected with a main drain outside the building; and such drains shall be constructed of brick-work, concrete or masonry in such a manner as to be water-tight, a proper gradient being given to draw off all liquid waste, washings, etc., from inside the building. This fluid should be disposed of in a manner directed by the District Sanitary Officer.

(e) Tan and chunam pits shall be built water-tight of pukka masonry lined with Cuddapah slabs to admit of scrubbing periodically. The corners should be rounded of.

(f) Old buildings used as tanneries shall not be licensed as such until the above conditions are satisfied or until such improvements as in the opinion of the District Board are sufficient to meet sanitary requirements are carried out.

(g) A good supply of water shall be available on the premises; either a tap or a cistern shall be fixed in some convenient place.

(h) Proper arrangements should be made for the storing of hair, fleshings and other matter detached from any hide or gut in a suitable part of the premises to await removal therefrom periodically.

(i) The drying ground for the fleshings and gut shall be provided with wire nettings above, and all round to prevent dogs and crows and kites gaining access to them.

(j) Proper arrangements should be made for the removal of liquid waste and it should under no circumstances be allowed to stagnate in pits. Brick and cement drains should be constructed for leading the refuse from the tannery to the plot of ground selected by the District Board for the disposal and treatment of the refuse.

9. The President shall, before an application for the grant of a license is considered by the District Board, satisfy himself either by an inspection of the locality by himself or by the District Sanitary Officer or by the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Sub-division, when specially deputed by the President, that the conditions above prescribed are duly satisfied. In every case in which the license shall have to be refused, the locality shall be inspected by the President himself. During such inspection attention shall be paid to the following matters:—
